

DR DEBORAH MITTON STUDENT VOLUNTEER AWARD

Min Ji Kim is the 2015 recipient of the Dr. Deborah Mitton Student Volunteer Award. She attends Simonds High school, graduating in June this year. Respected by teachers and fellow students, Min Ji is an exceptional student, excelling in both Math and Sciences.

She is the treasurer of the school Student Council and has been actively involved in many school-sponsored activities. In 2013, she attended the Shad Valley Summer Program at Lakehead University, and became an ambassador of the program at her school. Min Ji is also a Civilian Instructor in the Royal Canadian Sea Cadets, teaching shooting skills, coaching biathlon skiing and organizing other events for the cadets.

Min Ji moved to Canada from Korea three years ago and has overcome many challenges to become a very successful student and volunteer, recently winning the prestigious "Teens Who Care" award, given by the Resource Centre for Youth, to those who have had a positive impact on their community.

As a hospital volunteer, Min Ji has donated many hours escorting patients and working at the coffee cart in the oncology department. She uses her musical talents to engage the patients on the long term care units. Min Ji's goal is to become a medical doctor. We wish her much success in her chosen career.

THERESA CASEY STUDENT VOLUNTEER AWARD

Keltee McCann-McKeown is the 2015 recipient of the Theresa Casey Student Volunteer Award. A high honours student, Keltee will graduate from Saint John High School this year. She will be attending UNBSJ in the fall to work towards her dream of becoming a Radiation Therapist.

Described as a well-rounded student who has won the respect of teachers and peers alike, Keltee is a member of the Women's self-esteem group at her high school and has been the recipient of the Saint John High School Straight A Awards.

Keltee is also an active volunteer at the Saint John Regional Hospital, devoting time to both the gift shop and the oncology unit. In 2014, along with a fellow student, she was named the Auxiliary's "Volunteer of the Year". Keltee has extensive experience outside of the Hospital as well, volunteering with Grand Bay Baptist Church, Outflow Outreach Program and Uptown Saint John Canada Day celebrations. With her church, she has travelled to Toronto and to New York to work with Frontlines Youth Outreach and the Bowery Mission, respectively.

Aside from academics and volunteering, Keltee enjoys photography, reading and playing piano and guitar. Our best wishes are extended to Keltee for great success in the years to come.
